

Let The Mountians Cry Out

Andrew Thompson

♩ = 80

As the con-gre-ga-tion call to You, as Your As Your peo-ple gath-er from near and far, as we As all na-ture's yearn-ing for Your re-turn, as we Spir-it comes like the morn-ing dew, as You touch each heart and recel-e-dai-ly brate all we know You are, as You speak to us, and we wres-tle to live and learn, as we grow in free-dom, that new each mind, as sins for-giv-en are left be-hind, and speak to You, as You fill our giv-ings are with faith to be-a-the new. And You sup-ply, aseach song is lift-ed up to the sky. And as we turn to You, and as we turn to as we move in You, and as we move in as we live in You, and as we live in

You.
You,
You,

Let the moun - tians cry out, let cre - a - tion sing, as we lift our prais - es to the King. Let the can - yons echo, let the val - leys ring, as we join to geth - er and wor - ship Him.
